About SCIC

We are a new generation development consulting company based in London. We undertake extensive research on social, environmental, economic and political development challenges in the mix. We undertake the crafting of integrated development strategies for implementation; and provide advice to governments, businesses and individuals focusing on needs and peculiarities of the customer. Our key drivers are high ethical values, quality and social enterprise.

Training:

Introducing Public Private Partnerships and the Private Finance Initiative (PFI)

This is an introductory course to PPP/PFI arrangements and the environments within which these products would thrive. It exposes the critical elements and determinants in the transactions and responsibilities thereof. The course provides guidance on when and how to access and use the different PPP/PFI products and the evolution of hybrids towards the achievement of desired results. The course would also provide information on cross-border investment possibilities and expose opportunities for consultancy. Some of the PPP/PFI products for discussion during the course would cover BOT; BOOT; BOO; BLT; DFBO; Concessioning and Leasing. PPP/PFI products that are well managed within an environment that is conducive, could improve quality in designs, construction and provisions of public services like schools, healthcare, water supply, roads, housing and power supply. It could help government span out its development budgets, spread investment risks, grow local economies and deliver dividends (as against deficits) to citizens.
