About SCIC

We are a new generation development consulting company based in London. We undertake extensive research on social, environmental, economic and political development challenges in the mix. We undertake the crafting of integrated development strategies for implementation; and provide advice to governments, businesses and individuals focusing on needs and peculiarities of the customer. Our key drivers are high ethical values, quality and social enterprise.

Training:

Public sector budgetary activity best practice and performance

This training provides fundamentals of public sector budgetary strategies using a bottom-up approach that is system-wide against deliverable components of the overall sectoral objectives within the reference period. It emphasises the use of the right performance measures and indicators for reference and the need for effective budgetary communication and controls in increased dynamic environment as it is in the public sector. The interface between practices in the private and public sectors are explored in this course and the contributions to the realisation of cross-sectoral shared vision in an increasingly interdependent setting will be examined. Practical aspects and sharing of experiences among participants will be encouraged.

Suitability

Participants should be public officers involved in budgetary activities from generation, preparation, implementation, internal controls and evaluation of performance, in various public sector organisations.

Duration and delivery location

3 days in the UK. It can be organised overseas

Cost

The cost of packaged training for groups of 10 will cover lodging, feeding, course materials, tutorials and 3 days London city transportation including airport pickup. Please contact us to negotiate a quote.
