About SCIC

We are a new generation development consulting company based in London. We undertake extensive research on social, environmental, economic and political development challenges in the mix. We undertake the crafting of integrated development strategies for implementation; and provide advice to governments, businesses and individuals focusing on needs and peculiarities of the customer. Our key drivers are high ethical values, quality and social enterprise.

Training:

Public sector contracting for best value to stakeholders

The training aims to expose public sector legal and commercial teams to contracting best practice to minimize risks and to promote best value for money in the contracting of public sector projects and programmes. The course is designed to enable participants understand the interrelationship between sociopolitical, environmental and economic impacts and the balance that should be established among key determinants in achieving development deliverables inherent in public sector projects and programmes contracting. Some elements in the creation of enabling environment for long term investments and alliance strategies between public and private sectors would be considered in this course.
